

Strategies for Success:

Major Sources of After-School Funding

New! Detailed Information on over 30 sources of afterschool funding.
http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/training_fact_sheets.pdf.

Afterschool Funding. It's Out There. Know How to Get It.

Multiple, varied funding streams are vital for afterschool programs to achieve sustainability. These funding sources can be found at the federal, state and local levels. Think about the important and diverse effects that afterschool programs can have on the lives of youth, families and communities as you identify and look for the various funding streams to tap into.

Check out the information in the (Revised! 11/02) Sustainability Workbook PDF - <http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/sustain.pdf>, Designing a Sustainability Plan Worksheets, Funding Tips, Publications and Links sections and use the materials created by the organizations listed on those pages to identify the funding streams that match your needs. Then start asking for funds. The money is out there, and is yours for the asking.

Afterschool Funding At A Glance

Federal Funding: To Apply for From Federal Agencies (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_fed.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- Education - GEAR UP, Bilingual Education: Comprehensive School Grants
- Justice - Juvenile Mentoring Program (JUMP)
- Health and Human Services - School Action Grant Program
- Housing and Urban Development - Youthbuild

Federal Funding: To Apply for From State Agencies (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_fed.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- Education - Title I, 21st Century Community Learning Centers, Safe and Drug Free Schools
- Juvenile Justice - Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention: Allocation to States
- Health and Human Services - Child Care Development Fund, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF)
- Agriculture - USDA Snack Money

State: (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_state.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- State Education Agency
- State Department of Health and Human Services
- Community Education Office
- Governors' Commissions related to youth

Local: (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_local.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- School District
- City or County General Fund
- Youth Services Bureaus
- Parks and Recreation Departments
- Sheriff 's Office

Private: (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_private.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- Foundations: National, State and Community
- Corporations
- Chamber of Commerce
- Police Athletic League
- Volunteer Center

In-Kind Contributions: (http://www.afterschoolalliance.org/funding_in_kind.cfm for more information on these funding streams)

- Staff Time from a Community Organization
- Evaluations Conducted by Universities
- Fundraising Consultation by a Business
- Special Events Ads by Local Media